CHR to start its own probe of priest's slay

The Commission on Human Rights (CHR) will start its own probe into the slaying of a priest, a move that could lead to a more thorough investigation of the case. The priest, who was a member of the Society of Jesus, was found dead in a car in a residential area. The police have already arrested several suspects, but the CHR wants to ensure that all aspects of the case are thoroughly examined.

San Beda trips Arellano
 LAC whips St. Benade

By Garry Pineda

MANILA—The Philippine National League (PNL) basketball season is in full swing, and the competition is heating up. In a recent game, San Beda University defeated Arellano University, while the Loyola University Chicago (LAC) team dominated St. Benade.

The PNL season has been marked by several high-scoring games and intense rivalries. San Beda's victory over Arellano was a significant upset, as the latter was considered a favorite. On the other hand, LAC's performance against St. Benade was a display of their offensive prowess.

The league is expected to continue its momentum throughout the season, with several more games scheduled for the coming weeks. Fans are eagerly anticipating the results of these matches.

Asian Cycling post goes to Trentino

The Asian Cycling post has been moved to Trentino, a region in northern Italy. This move is part of a larger effort to improve the organization and logistics of the upcoming cycling events. The new location is expected to provide better facilities and a more professional environment for the athletes and officials.

The decision to move the post to Trentino was made after careful consideration of various factors, including the availability of resources and the proximity to the competition venues. It is hoped that this change will enhance the overall experience of the event.

Boxing association seeks more help from private sector

By Garry Pineda

The Philippine Boxing Association (PBA) is seeking more support and funding from the private sector to improve the training and development of its athletes. The association believes that private companies and organizations can play a significant role in the growth of the sport in the Philippines.

By partnering with the private sector, the PBA aims to provide better resources and facilities for its boxers. This includes access to top-level coaches, equipment, and training camps. The association is currently reaching out to various businesses and investors to explore potential partnerships.

Pinpointing Tungunian rehab to start in Q4

MANILA, Philippines — The Philippine government is expected to announce a rehabilitation plan for the troubled Tungunian Bank in the fourth quarter, according to sources familiar with the matter. The plan is expected to involve a combination of capital injection and asset restructuring. The bank, which has been in a state of financial distress since its founding, is currently being managed by a government-appointed administrator. The rehabilitation plan is expected to be completed by the end of the year, with the bank resuming normal operations in the first quarter of 1998.

Bangko Sentral wants say in entry of new investors in local banks

MANILA, Philippines — The Bangko Sentral ng Pilipinas (BSP) is pushing for a new law that would give it a say in the entry of new investors into local banks. The central bank is concerned that the entry of new investors, particularly foreign ones, could lead to a loss of control over the banking system. The proposed law would require the BSP to approve any new investment in a local bank. The BSP is also pushing for a new law that would give it the right to appoint and remove the directors of local banks. The BSP is currently in the process of drafting the proposed law and expects to introduce it to the Philippine Congress in the near future.

Move to preserve industry's integrity

MANILA, Philippines — The Philippine government is expected to announce a move to preserve the integrity of the banking industry. The move is expected to involve a combination of capital injection and asset restructuring. The government is concerned that the entry of new investors, particularly foreign ones, could lead to a loss of control over the banking system. The proposed move would require the government to approve any new investment in a local bank. The government is also pushing for a new law that would give it the right to appoint and remove the directors of local banks. The government is currently in the process of drafting the proposed law and expects to introduce it to the Philippine Congress in the near future.

eTelecare Global seeks delisting

MANILA, Philippines — eTelecare Global is seeking delisting from the Philippine Stock Exchange. The company, which is a subsidiary of the Philippine government, is currently in a state of financial distress. The company is seeking delisting in order to restructure its operations and improve its financial performance. The Philippine Stock Exchange is currently in the process of reviewing the company's request for delisting. The company is expected to announce the results of the review in the near future.

RP Taiwan extend special hiring deal

MANILA, Philippines — The Philippine government is expected to extend a special hiring deal with Taiwan. The deal, which was originally set to expire in 1997, is expected to be extended for another year. The deal allows the Philippine government to hire a large number of Filipino workers in Taiwan at a special rate. The deal is expected to be extended in order to allow the Philippine government to continue to benefit from the deal. The Philippine government is currently in the process of negotiating the extension of the deal with the Taiwanese government.
